A CLEARING HOUSE FORMED BY THE CONNELLVILLE BANKS.

Action Taken at Meeting of Officers of All the Financial Institutions of the Two Towns Yesterday Afternoon.

RECORD OF THEIR PROCEEDINGS.

Resolutions Passed in Favor of Having $100,000 Clearing House Checks Issued for the Local Banks for Use as They May Need Them.

The officers of the Connellville and New Haven banks at a meeting held yesterday afternoon organized a Clearing House. A meeting of the Connellville Merchants' Association was also held last evening and a resolution was passed unanimously to cooperate with the banks and also to accept Clearing House checks that may be issued in payment of wages in the Connellville region at their face value for merchandise. The record of the clearing house meeting is best told in the following minutes of the meeting.

Present: Messrs. Armstrong, Rupp, Pitzer, Mader, Dick, Schick, Norton and J. C. Young.

In the absence of Mr. Kilpatrick Mr. Rupp was called to the chair.

On motion Mr. Rupp seconded Mr. Armstrong's motion that the following resolutions be adopted: That the clearing house be organized for the purpose of issuing checks for the use of the local banks for the purpose of clearing up the accounts of the banks in the Connellville and New Haven regions.

Resolved: That the clearing house be organized for the purpose of issuing checks for the use of the local banks for the purpose of clearing up the accounts of the banks in the Connellville and New Haven regions.

TRI-STATE NEWS.

SAILED TODAY FOR ENGLAND

New York Nov 2.—at a monster open air demonstration in which stereoscopic reproductions of various scenes connected with his life and work formed a novel feature, Gen Booth the founder of the Salvation Army, who sailed today for Europe after what in the course of nature probably will be his last American tour, made his final address to the citizens of this country and the American people generally. He was in Gen Booth made his final address from the steps of the city hall. He was surrounded by hundreds of ununiformed soldiers of the Salvation Army, many of whom were carrying flags, showing the state of his many recent speeches.

PAY CHECKS AS GOOD AS CASH.

The Clearing House Check, or Pay Check, is as good as cash so long as it passes at full par value and buys all the necessities of life. The workmen of the Connelville area need not hesitate to accept them. The check workers will find them good at the company stores or at any other store in Connelville and vicinity. The Connelville Mechanics' Association promptly and without hesitation has agreed to take them in exchange for purchases, and the Connelville and New Haven banks and those of the neighborhood have formed a local clearing house for the purpose of further mutual security to themselves and their depositors, and for the protection of the community. They feel confident of their ability to handle the situation. They are entitled to, and should receive, the hearty cooperation of the community from the merchant to the workman.

The present condition, be it understood, is only temporary. The Pay Check is a temporary device to tide over a scarcity of currency due to the action of unkind people who have withdrawn their money from circulation and are hoarding it up. Relief is already in sight. Gold is coming from Europe on every ship, and it is not being locked up in the New York banks, but is being sent out through the country to facilitate the transaction of business and especially the movement of the crops. New currency is being taken out by the banks. New money is coming in from Washington. It is only a question of perhaps thirty days until the Pay Check will have disappeared as a medium of exchange and we will have plenty of gold, silver and paper money for the needs of business.

The country passed through a similar experience in 1893, and similar devices were employed to tide over the situation. But business conditions then were infinitely worse than they are now. To balance of trade was against us. The mills and mines and manufactures were closing down. There was no work. An army of unemployed was doing hungry and destitute over the country. The balance of trade is now largely in our favor. The country is wonderfully prosperous. There is absolutely nothing the matter except that we haven't enough currency, that is to say enough gold and silver and paper money, to do the business with. Hence the Pay Check as a temporary expedient until Congress and the national currency of trade will have revived the situation.

We understand that some ignorant people have advised workmen not to accept the Pay Check. The workman is just as much interested in supporting the credit of the Pay Check as anybody else could be. It is the best that his employer can offer him at the moment. If he refuses it, the employer will be compelled to shut down and the workman will be thrown out of employment. His future condition will be immeasurably worse than his present. He will be blind indeed to permit a prejudice against the form his wages may take to destroy the substance of his livelihood.

But he won't be blind. The average workman has, we are sure, a keen appreciation of his own interests and to deliberately seek their destruction. Our advice to everybody is to keep cool, accept the situation gracefully, take what it offers, be hopeful and helpful, and on an account obstructive and harmful. The nation is prosperous. The banks are solvent, nobody is bankrupt and everything will be all right again with a little patience and confidence and cooperation.

FAYETTE COUNTY'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER.

The Daily Courier is five years old today. From forty columns aggregating 720 inches it has grown in size during that time to fifty-six columns aggregating 1,120 inches, an increase of nearly 60 per cent. In circulation it has grown from 1,000 to over 5,000 copies. During this period it has installed a battery of three linotypes and a stereotype perfecting press of the same pattern used by the city dailies. Its equipment is the best in Fayette county or in Southwestern Pennsylvania outside of McKeesport and Pittsburgh.

It has a larger circulation in Fayette county and the Connelville area than any other newspaper published here. It isn't a "pioneer" daily, but it is a pushing and progressive newspaper with the largest amount of publicity for the least amount of money. Now is the time to advertise.

It seems that we were misinformed as to the matter of the pay check. It is not being blown out. Only a portion of the money is being blown out. There is no disposition on the part of the Erie Coke Company to discontinue its publication of yesterday and today's papers. The Erie Coke Company has always been on the public's side and it evidently intends to remain there.

A blackmailer is bad enough, but a blackmailer of money is a blackmailer of the public. Every one who is regularly regarded as a just judgment is a blackmailer.

General Booth returns to England with the happy conviction of having fought the good fight and won a glorious victory in his American campaign.

Rush orders for engines and cars are a rush of business somewhere. Do you know where? It's the crops that are being moved. Do you know where they go? A large portion of them go to Europe. Do you know what that means? It means the return of Europe's gold to this country. It's coming in now on every ship and it will continue to come right along, for weeks and months. The money trouble will be solved. Keep cool and don't let it worry you.

Faithfulness will be watered from the trough.

A New York pastor says the money paid is a judgment of God visited upon the people here, they have been worshipping Mammon. When was Mammon when the Golden Calf was set up?

Johnstown is paying in cash. The people here will find the coins while we have nothing but a paper money, but the paper is not a good thing. It is better to have a good thing than to have a bad thing.

Russians enter in fleet with us against Japan, and we will have plenty of gold, silver and paper money for the needs of business.

The country passed through a similar experience in 1893, and similar devices were employed to tide over the situation.

SENDING GOLD WEST.

Flood of Yellow Money From England Passed on by New York Banks.

WHOLE COUNTRY IS BENEFITED

This Week Over $12,000,000 Has Been Sent Out by Metropolitan Financials to Correspondents in Smaller Cities—Russia Hoards U. S. Coin.

New York, Nov. 9.—The stream of Europe's gold pouring into New York has not been halted here to meet local demands, but is being allowed to flow through the financial arteries of the United States and relieve the needs of agriculture and other industries generally. Gold importers state that nearly all of the $21,000,000 which already has reached here will soon find its way to every quarter of the country. Nearly $12,000,000 has been shipped to the interior this week. Gold has been shipped from here to Chicago in such large amounts that the issuance of circulating bank scrip in Chicago may not be necessary. The greater part of the $12,000,000 arriving on the steamer Lusitania and of the $18,000,000 which will come will be immediately expressed to out-of-town banks.

Never in the history of New York finance, according to gold importers, has there been so much money engaged abroad by out-of-town banks as at present.

"There need be no fear," said a member of one of the largest gold importing firms, "that there will be a cessation of gold importation because of the increase in the discount rates of the banks of England and Germany. These increases in the discount rate were not made to stop gold from coming to this country but to strengthen their own position by drawing gold from other centers in the world. There is a heavy outward movement of American commodities and until they are paid for we can demand our payments in gold and it cannot be denied us. The gold that we are importing is coming in every form, though principally in American double eagles. I know that within a year the Russian imperial treasury had $150,000,000 in American double eagles hoarded in its vaults, while the Bank of England has many millions of dollars of American gold coins. We sold a bank $1,000,000 in gold which has been sent to the bank's out-of-town correspondents. Without doubt the greater part of the gold imports are being sent to the country banks, who are making their demands on the local institutions for their balances."

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Trade Conditions Throughout the Country Reviewed by Experts.

New York, Nov. 9.—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade says today that there were few commercial failures in the United States this week than for two weeks past, reflecting the improvement of conditions as forecasted in the reports received up to last night. The failures of the week numbered only 228, as against 273 last week, 352 the preceding week and 172 the corresponding week of last year. Failures in Canada also were less, the number being 19 this week as against 21 the week previous and 31 in the corresponding week of last year. Another encouraging and satisfactory feature of the failure report is that only 76 of this week's failures involved liabilities of $5,000 or more as against 92 last week. The financial storm which broke in October and which now seems weathered, as viewed by the returns for the first week of November, showed its effect in the liabilities of commercial failures during the month. They aggregated $27,114,950 as against $10,553,714 in October, 1906. Continuing Dun's review says:

"Scarcely a money, unreasonable weather and the holiday combined to make the volume of business smaller than usual this week, but the situation is more encouraging because of a general belief that the financial storm has been weathered remarkably well. About $40,000,000 in gold was secured abroad before the Bank of England raised the official rate of discount and remaining confidence is witnessed by deposits of hoarded money. It will take some time to restore all this cash to circulation, but the treasury has given further relief and the banks are issuing notes freely. Leading industries are handicapped by lack of funds and so many contemplative undertakings have been deferred that working forces are reduced, especially at steel mills. Prices of commodities have declined still further and exports should be increased thereby, but for the last week foreign commerce at this port showed a loss of $2,512,691 in value of merchandise exported as compared with the same week last year, while imports gained $165,061.

"In a few departments of the iron and steel industry prices are slightly lower, notably pig iron at Pittsburgh, which is averaging about $5 per ton. The figures quoted a year ago, however, are a disinclination to avoid accumulation of stocks in ports than actually until the autumn pressure is sufficiently relieved to restore normal consumption. Most plants have enough business in sight to maintain full activity during the balance of the year, but in many cases merchants ask that deliveries be deferred."

Erica Pa., Nov. 8.—Margaret, wife of Henry Streiber, drank cantharide acidly and died.

WOULD ARREST UNITARIANS

Allegheny Pastor Invokes Law Against Blasphemy.

Pittsburg, Nov. 9.—Every person who impugns the divinity of Jesus Christ is a blasphemer, according to the Rev. Dr. Charles W. Blodgett, pastor of the North Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, and should be arrested, thrown in jail and made to pay the penalty. Dr. Blodgett is particularly severe in his interpretation of the offense and points to Unitarian ministers as offenders. This caused him to remark that he hoped the Republican party would not nominate Secretary of War W. H. Taft, who is a member of the Unitarian church. The Unitarians do not believe in the divinity of Christ.

Dr. Blodgett also wants the law against profanity enforced. He has an editorial this week in the Church Chronicle, a paper published in the interest of the North Avenue congregation, showing that there is a law on the statute books of Pennsylvania making blasphemy a penal offense and asking that it be enforced. He would apply its provision to every person, be he minister or layman. In his editorial Dr. Blodgett makes special reference to signs which adorn the front of Carnegie hall, Allegheny, almost every Sunday. He does not mention names, but it is inferred that he alludes to the Rev. Thomas Clifton, pastor of the Northside Unitarian church. It is also understood that the editorial is published for the benefit of Dr. Mitchell of the Boston School of Theology, Dr. Smylie, formerly of Lane seminary, Cincinnati, and professors of scientific departments of various colleges who expressed what they assert to be a broad interpretation of the Bible. Dr. Blodgett calls other men whom he has in mind "kicks in the faith," and says they are "not dry behind the ears." The doctor however would not give names.

ENGINEER SAVES TOWN

Hauls Burning Train Outside Where Two Cars of Dynamite Blow Up.

Douglas, Ark., Nov. 9.—Jesus Garcia, a locomotive engineer, saved Nacozari, Ariz., from destruction by hauling a burning powder train through the town at top speed, but lost his own life and caused the death of a dozen or more Mexican section hands through the explosion of two cars of powder just as the burning train was passing a section house. John Chisholm, a boy, was also killed by the explosion.

According to details of the accident, a powder train on the narrow gauge railroad of the Pinaros mine caught fire when near Nacozari. In the train were two open cars heavily loaded with explosives, including the concentration and a great part of the town of Nacozari would be destroyed if the powder exploded there. Engineer Garcia called to the rest of the crew to jump and started to run the train away from the town. He took it about a half mile when the explosion occurred as the cars were passing a section house full of men. The terrific explosion blew the house, the train, the men and the engineer to atoms.

LOSES LEG ON ELECTION

New Man Who Wagered on Fagan Is Stuck at Home.

Jersey City, Nov. 9.—Jerry Oakley, a well-known character, has not been able to leave his home since Tuesday because he is short a leg under train wheels and has been the possessor of a wooden leg ever since. Tommy Mallin, one of his friends, also wears a peg leg and in a warm ante-election discussion Jerry said:

"I'll bet a million that Fagan wins." "I ain't got a million with me," answered Tommy. "But I'll bet my word on it against yours that Wilkin's the next mayor."

Jerry did not have quite a million with him either, so he promptly accepted Tommy's proposition. That's why he is confined to his home. Tommy called on him early Wednesday morning and collected the bet.

WOULD FIGHT WITH US

Russians Anxious to Serve in Prospective War Against Japan.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—The talk of the possibility of a war between the United States and Japan, which has been taken seriously in Russia, is bringing many volunteers to the American embassy who say they are anxious to serve in the United States army in case of hostilities. A report is also circulating in military circles here that the American army in the Philippines needs instructors, especially for the artillery and engineering corps. Five or six Russian officers of these branches of the service apply daily at the embassy for commissions and are disappointed by the assurance that there is no likelihood of Japan and the United States going to war.

STORM HITS MARSEILLES

Whole South of France Suffers Sea and Windy Disaster.

Marseilles, France, Nov. 9.—A hurricane swept over this city last night causing immense damage to docks and other property. The gasworks were flooded and the city plunged into darkness. A number of persons were killed by collapsing houses. The whole of South France continued to suffer from gales following successive rains. In many places the inundations were worse than those which followed the September storms. The Marseilles coal mines at Grasse were also flooded and all work is suspended.

NO GOD BUT MAMMON

New York Pastor Says Religion Is Only An Echo In America.

New York, Nov. 9.—"God is the only God of the American people. By dropping the words, 'In God We Trust' from all coins in the future the government is cutting aside the mask of hypocrisy which for years and hid the real divinity of the Americans. 'In God We Trust' would be the true motto," said the Rev. S. A. Preston, assistant pastor of the Metropolitan temple.

"The recent panic which has shaken the country is nothing more or less than a judgment sent by God to a nation following vice," continued Dr. Preston.

Dr. Preston declared that if this country did not soon awaken to its shocking spiritual condition it would quickly receive the punishment accorded the cities of ancient days.

"Providence in Wall street may be seen the traces of Lazarus," he said. "Christianity is but an echo and it is not strange that God should visit punishment in the shape of the recent panic on such an infidel, infidel community."

"Given churches are owned by rich men, who use them as they do their yachts, for personal ends."

ELUCID CONSIDERABLE BY SUICIDE

Altoona, Pa., Nov. 9.—Constable Charles of Harrisburg came to Altoona on a charge of having obtained $150 from Louis S. Burton of Harrisburg by falsely pretending that he had a carload of sugar for sale at Gattysburg. The constable met Segel on the street at noon and took him into custody. Segel asked permission to go to the store of a friend whom he expected to see his bail and the constable accompanied him there. While waiting for the merchant Segel stepped into a closet and blew his brains out with a revolver.

His Courtship

By HELEN R. MARTIN,
Author of "Tillie: A Mennonite Maid."

Copyright, 1907, by McClure, Phillips & Company.

"And that one thing Eunice? She raised her eyes to his. 'It is you I have wanted! Rather than go to Europe—so that from you I would bring back those days of last summer on the farm—yes even those days before we had spoken together at all—for at least I then could see you every day face to face!'"

"Eunice, you mean?" "You are betrothed to her?" "The devil I am!" "But you are 'as good' as!" "That's her idea not mine. I never originated it. And if I have any influence with myself—"

"You told me you loved her?" "I spoke figuratively. I mean I loved youth, beauty, grace."

"Oh!" "Don't you see?" "Please to label your remarks to me, 'little' or 'figurative'." She was speaking quite seriously, with a look of bewilderment, "or I may misunderstand you painfully!"

"No Eunice you and I will not only understand each other again. For we shall speak the same language—the language of our hearts!"

"But if it was not Miss Elliott what was it that kept you from me when you wanted to come?"

"I will tell you."

"He drew a long deep breath then half turned to her as he walked beside her and talked."

"It was while the days dragged by when I was waiting for a sign from you and my heart grew weary. I had hoped that you would come to me to help me in my work."

"I was waiting for a sign from you and my heart grew weary. I had hoped that you would come to me to help me in my work."

into a wretched marriage! Why should I step aside for others even less worthy than myself? I wanted you now—now while that sweet wild wood dove was upon you! Perhaps you would never lose it if I took you to myself and kept you so close to me forever that the world could not get near to you. Why should I leave it to others to enjoy the charming opening up of your young mind to the wonderful panorama of life, for who could do that more than I in the unfolding of your beautiful spirit? And if not discovered you? Why should I not have my reward? Why should I not win you, marry you, travel with you all over the world, teach and guide you where I could and myself be taught and guided by your womanly love?"

"Eunice I was almost appalled when once I gave rein to myself at the strength of my love for you, for I felt the hurt of it almost as much as the ecstasy."

"I tried to persuade myself that your love for me was as fundamental as in a stable, an mine for you but the very force of my own passion made me distrust the sophistries of my self-deceit. I knew that if I would not degrade my great love for you I must put your best welfare above my own desires. I must leave you free—until you had taken your bearings in the world and had found yourself. And then if it were not too late—"

"But thought grieved my very soul!" "And so Eunice as I am a man and not a god my love and not my reason carried the day—and I am here with you!"

"He stopped in the solitary path into which they had strayed and opened his arms to her."

"CHAPTER XXVII"

"I will bump you to hear if Georgiana and I am awfully sorry for you but I can't help it," said Daisy. One afternoon in October the two girls strolled about the campus. I've got to tell you you're laboring under the delusion that Eunice is in love with you. We can't of course understand how he can help being when he had the chance of watching us for four weeks without our knowing it. But she added in the tone of an oracle, "he is not!"

"For you should know it now while no one else knows it. My feelings except your pride are mixed up and before you hurt poor Georgiana to the point of divine him into my arms."

"The case you possibly know anything of Dr. Kierow's feelings. Daisy Georgiana asked. 'He is not a man to flatter them before the public. And I don't suppose he has taken you into his confidence.'"

"Oh but he has!" Georgiana turned and looked at her quickly. "What do you mean Daisy?"

"He is not a man to flatter them before the public. And I don't suppose he has taken you into his confidence."

"He is not a man to flatter them before the public. And I don't suppose he has taken you into his confidence."

clared. "And to think Georgiana how she missed your chance when you had him all to yourself for a whole month—for of course I wasn't in the way."

"No doubt Dr. Kierow found my too self more quickly because of my inaccessibility. I'm sure that if we had come together in the ordinary way and been hampered by conventional forms and reserve."

"And maybe that's why he fell in love with Eunice instead of you?" "I don't know your reasoning."

"Clear as mud!" He found you too superior. Prefers that simplicity. I ask you she demanded with a the natural wave of her hand "what is now at the very beginning of the term away from college—in New York or Newport or some place?"

"He is about to be married and intends to spend a year in traveling with his wife in Europe and Asia."

"The unfortunate lady's name?" "The unfortunate lady's name?"

"They waited breathless while President Elliott slowly took out his eyeglasses, adjusted them and examined the letter."

"Miss Eunice Wolcott?" "Again?" cried Daisy, fothering.

"The two girls waited a while. President Elliott proceeded in the positive direction."

"Please Georgiana, don't let me rattle you. Daisy, control her slipping her arm through her cousin's. I will find in the glancing of my remarks to you this afternoon some of your replies as a student of your public."

The Plow Woman

BY ELEANOR GATES

In this tale of North Dakota at the time immediately following the Custer massacre we have one to stir the blood of the most jaded novel reader.

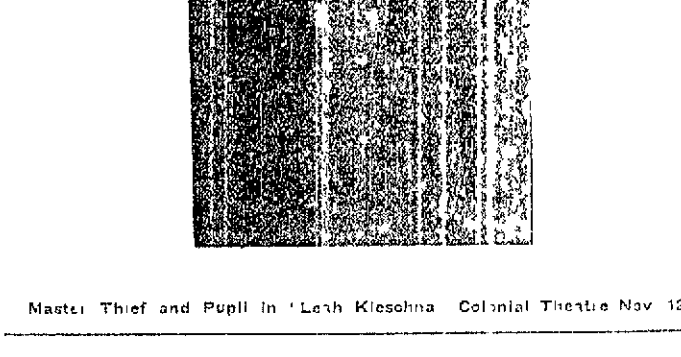

The Plow Woman plowed because she must and lost none of her womanly sweetness in doing so. Threatened by hostile Indians and more dangerous enemies of her own race who sought to oust her with her sister and helpfuls from their quarter-section, she becomes a heroine characteristically American and possible only in America.
